PERSONS WHO WILL REMEMBER JULY 4

They Have More or Less Severe Injuries as a Result of Celebration.

LEWIS RICHARDS OF PEAR STREET BADLY WOUNDED BY THE BURSTING OF CANNON—SCHEMAMAN INJURED WHILE FIRING A REVOLVER—A GLANCING BULLET STRUCK THOMAS MCGUIRE—MURRAY CHILDREN BURNED WHILE SETTING OFF FIREWORKS—NETTIE WIRTH HAD A NARROW ESCAPE.

Lewis Richards, who resides on Pear street, was terribly injured in a field near his home, Monday night, by the bursting of a cannon. It is the same old story, it did not make a discharge at the expected moment and Richards went over to ascertain the reason. He stooped down and while in that position the cannon burst, striking Richards in several parts of the body.

Dr. Manley was called and found his patient's face, arms, body and legs severely cut and burned. His face and arms were burned and the lower portion of the body was cut by the flying pieces of iron. It is feared that Richards is hurt internally. He will recover, but will be disfigured.

Fred Schemaman, of Irving avenue, is another revolver victim. He was using one Monday evening and one time it failed to shoot. Schemaman began to investigate and while thus engaged he pulled the trigger and it discharged a bullet that went into his left hand.

The ball entered at the joint of the middle finger and Dr. Kolb, who was summoned, found it in the wrist. It was removed.

THE BULLET GLANCED.

Thomas McGuire, of Orchard street, was the victim of a singular accident Monday evening. McGuire was seated at a window in the parlor of his residence and while enjoying his evening meal a bullet hit him in the neck.

Outside his home a number of young men were discharging a revolver that was pointed downward.

The bullet that entered McGuire's neck first struck a stone and glanced upwards, going through the window. Dr. John T. McGrath was called and removed the ball. No serious results will ensue.

Margaret and Lizzie Murray, little tots, were burned about their heads and faces at 9 o'clock Monday evening.

They were setting off fireworks at their home, corner of Irving avenue and River street. A large Roman candle exploded in their faces. The wounds were dressed by Dr. Haggerty.

Gustave Rahner, of Beech street, is confined to his room the result of getting into too close proximity to a big fire-cracker Monday night. A lot of powder lodged in his forehead, and he was otherwise burned. Dr. Walsh gave him medical attention.

CLOTHES SET ON FIRE.

Little Nettie Wirth, of Cedar avenue, had her apron pocket filled with fire-crackers last night. In her hand she held a lighted one that exploded, and some of the sparks fell into the pile in her apron pocket.

Presently the lit began to go off, and her clothes caught fire. The child ran and her clothes burned quickly.

Miss Maggie O'Brien caught her and tore the burning apparel from the little one. Her body was slightly burned and her hands were scorched. Dr. J. S. Behm was called and dressed the injuries.

THAT BINGHAMTON EXCURSION.

Fully Three Thousand Persons Were Unable to Get Transportation.

It was early yesterday morning when the excursionists who went to Binghamton July 4 returned to this city. The first train reached this city shortly before 3 a. m. and the second section made its appearance about an hour later.

It is estimated that the crowds at the various stations along the line from Scranton to Forest City inclusive, aggregated three thousand persons. Had the committee in charge of the excursion realized what a great success it was going to be and given the railroad company an opportunity to provide a sufficient number of cars, the excursion would probably have been the largest that ever left this valley.

When the committee disposed of all the regular excursion tickets Monday morning they applied to the Delaware and Hudson officials for some of the company's excursion tickets. A considerable number of these were sold and will be redeemed by the company as soon as it can arrange matters with the excursion committee. A number of these tickets were presented at the station yesterday and the holders were given a receipt for them.

O'BOYLE IS AT THE HELM.

He is Now the Acting Street Commissioner of the City.

Patrick O'Boyle is now the acting street commissioner of Scranton. His nomination as the successor of A. E. Dunning was voted by the council last Thursday night and referred to committee for consideration.

It was thought that Mr. Dunning would continue to act pending the confirmation and qualifying of Mr. O'Boyle, but that programme has been changed and Mr. O'Boyle is now "acting street commissioner." He is a son of Select Councilman Thomas O'Boyle.

EIGHTEEN DIVORCE CASES.

They Are on the Argument List for This Week.

There are eighteen divorce cases on the argument list this week. This is the largest number in any one term since Lackawanna county was organized, and the size of the number is not due to the continuation of any from former terms, but they are all new applications.

Last argument court Judge Gunster granted divorces and Judge Edwards granted 1.

GOING TO THE PENITENTIARY.

Patrick Battie, Frank Scheneman and Two Others Will Go Today.

Four prisoners will be taken to the Eastern penitentiary on the 8 o'clock Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train this morning. Sheriff Pryor will go and be assisted by four deputies.

The four prisoners are: Patrick Battie, who was sentenced to six years for the murder of Paul Stravaniskey by striking him with a stone and fracturing his skull on the night of April 2 at the White house on Fern avenue; Frank Scheneman, sentenced to seven years for stabbing Patrolman John D. Thomas with a large hunting knife three times on the night of March 19 during a fight in Martin Bird's saloon on North Main avenue, West Side; William Osborne, of Carbondale, sentenced to two years and three months for stabbing his brother-in-law, James Walsh, in the neck, and Joseph Waslosky, sentenced to two years for burglarizing the store of Ambrose Mulley and the shoemaker shop of Peter Aplanaq, in Providence.

BURNED BY POWDER.

John Panko's Face Receives the Force of an Explosion.

John Panko was severely scorched on the face yesterday by the explosion of a keg of powder in the Grassy Island shops at Binghamton. His eyes were not injured, but his countenance will be disfigured and powder marked. Panko was sitting near the keg and was eating his lunch. The explosion was caused by a spark from his lamp. He was brought to the Lackawanna hospital. He is 20 years old, unmarried, and lives in Olyphant.

WASHINGTON TODAY.

Scranton Will Be Well Represented at National Teachers' Meeting.

Those Who Will Attend.

Scranton will be very well represented at the National Teachers' association, the sessions of which will begin tomorrow in Washington. Two special cars will convey our delegation over the road by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western and Pennsylvania railroads, leaving this morning at 8 o'clock. The fare for the round trip has been quite an inducement, even during this warm weather, as it is but $9.51. Excellent hotel accommodations have been secured.

The convention will close on Monday and during the intervening time the visitors will have a fine opportunity for seeing the city and the many points of interest in the vicinity, including Camp Alger. The tickets are good until August 31, and many of the tourists will extend their trip in other directions.

Among the city teachers who will accompany Professor George Howell this morning are Miss L. E. Penman, the Misses Raub, Miss Josie Lee, Mrs. Martha Jones, Miss Jones, Etta Williams, Marion Dyer, Ella Webb, Anna May Richards, Margaret Davis, Ella Gavin, Kate Lavelle, Anna McGuire, Mary Robinson, Ida Murphy, Maggie O'Donnell, Mary Connor, Mollie Helm, Sarah Jones, Mattie Watkins, Katherine Price, Alice Evans, Mamie Thomas, Annette Davis, Ann Miller, Mary Harris, Christine Fellows, Professor G. W. Phillips, Professors Ketric, Burdick and Hawker.

The dates fixed for the convention are July 7, 8, 9, 11 and 12, and there will be eight sessions; namely, Thursday evening, Friday forenoon and evening, Saturday forenoon and evening, Sunday forenoon and evening, and Tuesday forenoon. The afternoons will be left open for sight seeing and recreation.

The first and last of these sessions will be held in convention hall, which has a seating capacity of 5,000. The other general sessions will be held in the Grand Opera house and the National theater. These buildings are centrally located and are near each other. At the suggestion of officers of the association, educational themes will be discussed in the forenoon at various churches in Washington on Sunday.

The headquarters for Pennsylvania will be in the Arlington hotel, and two of the parlors have been engaged for that use. Special rates have been secured at the best hotels.

The executive committee of the association promise that every facility would be provided the teachers for visits to Mount Vernon, Fortress Monroe, the navy yard and points of interest along the Chesapeake bay. Congress is in session and that adds additional interest.

This law was advocated by unionists.

JULY SESSION OF ARGUMENT COURT

It Will Adjourn Today and Reconvene Next Monday.

THAT IS TO GIVE THE ATTORNEYS AN OPPORTUNITY TO ATTEND THE MEETING OF THE STATE BAR ASSOCIATION—APPLICATION FOR REINSTATEMENT OF CORNELIUS SMITH CONTINUED UNTIL MONDAY BECAUSE OF THE ABSENCE OF JUDGE ARCHBOLD.

July argument court convened yesterday, but it was in session only during the forenoon. Tomorrow will be devoted to the argument of cases and all not disposed of will go over until next Monday. There will be no court this week after Wednesday on account of the meeting of the State Bar association at Delaware Water Gap Thursday and Friday.

Judge Archbold is away among the hills of Connecticut this week, therefore the application for reinstatement by Cornelius Smith will not be heard until next Monday. Judges Gunster and Edwards were on the bench yesterday, and both said they preferred to have the case heard before the entire bench.

The cases disposed of were small ones. Rules to open judgment were made absolute in the case of E. Robinson's Sons against Charles Rupert and others; in the case of W. F. Willard against the City of Scranton; J. S. Miller; and the appeal was stricken off in the case of Edward O'Neill against Mary Farrell. The rule to strike off judgment was discharged in the case of Christian Storr against William Weyant.

Reinstatement was reversed in the certiorari case of V. Cunino against Thomas Killiona, in the case of Stanley Polozky against John Rosello, in the case of Joseph Beckel & Co. against M. P. Thompson, the rule to set aside the service and return was discharged.

CHIC COLEMAN'S GREAT WORK.

Lowered the West Pittston Track Record Three Seconds.

The West Side fair ground track's bicycle record was smashed yesterday by Chic Coleman, of Pittston, in as pretty a spurt as one would wish to record. The record of 2:05 was broken down to 2:02. The announcement was received with a great demonstration of applause.

The rider was in excellent form and might easily be said to have been the star of the day. He rode with excellent control and won several handsome prizes with a good margin. Not only did Coleman break the track record but also took first prizes in the one-mile open and half-mile open events, and it is possible, had he not dropped out of the two-mile race and five-mile handicap, he would have received a slice of these prizes.—Pittston Gazette.

Coleman is a resident of this city, and it was here he first began his career as a rider.

MINER HORRIBLY BURNED.

Crawled Naked from a Mine and Died Shortly Afterward.

Zachariah Hughes, of Hurestown, near Pittston, was terribly burned by an explosion of gas while going to his work yesterday morning. He was able to crawl from the mine, but his clothing burned from his body, and he died at 1 o'clock p. m.

Hughes was 66 years old, an experienced miner and was employed in No. 8 mine of the Pennsylvania Coal company. He went to work at 6 o'clock yesterday morning and entered the Seneca slope at the foot of his garden as a near cut to his work. In some manner he set off a considerable body of gas in the slope.

A remarkable fact was that the old man was able to crawl out of the slope naked body black and charred from the fire, before he was discovered. He was the father of E. J. Hughes, a Dunmore mine foreman.

ARE GOING TO WASHINGTON.

Superintendents Taylor and Bovard Leave This Morning.

County Superintendent of Schools J. C. Taylor and Superintendent E. D. Bovard, of the Dunmore schools, will leave at 8 o'clock this morning for Washington, D. C., to attend the national convention of the Educational association.

Superintendent Taylor will spend a week along Chesapeake Bay, and will not return home until Saturday, July 27, but certificates will be sent out before the 10th to all who passed the examination. Mr. Taylor has had all the papers marked and will mail the certificates after he reaches Washington this afternoon.

WOUNDED AT SANTIAGO.

The Name of John Davitt, of Pittston, Appears in the List.

"Davitt, muskian, Thirteenth infantry," is one of the names that appears in the list of wounded at Santiago.

John Davitt, of Oregon, Pittston, bugler of the Thirteenth regiment, United States infantry, is supposed to be the person referred to. He served five years in Company A, Thirteenth infantry, received an honorable discharge, and three years ago re-enlisted in Company G, of the same regiment.

Prior to this year he was stationed at Fort Porter, Buffalo. He visited Pittston in September last on the occasion of his father's death. His sister, Mrs. Patrick Gallagher, received a letter from her brother just before he sailed from Tampa with Lawton's division.

BOARD OF HEALTH OFFICERS.

Will Be Elected at This Evening's Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the board of health will be held this evening. Officers will be elected. The term of only one member, Henry Zeigler, of the South Side, expires.

It is probable that all the present officers will be re-elected. The board is probably the most non-political of the city's several municipal bodies. Its officers are: W. A. Paine, president; Dr. W. E. Allen, health officer; T. N. Cullen, food and meat inspector; William H. Burke, sanitary policeman; D. C. Thomas, superintendent of crematory; Michael J. O'Malley, plumbing inspector, and R. J. Murray, secretary.

Besides Mr. Zeigler, the members of the board are Dr. W. A. Paine, Dr. J. K. Bentley, George S. Horn and M. J. Kelly. Mr. Zeigler is in Europe and will be absent several months. He does not desire a re-appointment.

MR. COYLE'S DISCLAIMER.

Has Not Approached Jurors, He Says, and Wants Justice.

Henry W. Coyle, of the Twelfth ward, mentioned in Saturday's Tribune as having been warned by District Attorney Jones not to converse with men serving as jurors, denies that there is any ground for such a warning. He says that last week he was in court as the prosecutor in a case docketed after the Williams case and conversed with Williams simply in a friendly way while waiting for the case in which he was interested to be called.

Mr. Coyle says that District Attorney Jones will be asked to prove that he (Coyle) has at any time or in any case had conversations with jurors not entirely proper and honorable.

MERRY FOURTH FOR THE CHILDREN.

They Were Remembered by Many of Their Kind Friends.

The children at the Home for the Friendless had a delightful time on their first Fourth in their new quarters. Mrs. J. A. Atkinson, of the home, served three gallons of ice cream. Lewis, Reilly & Davis gave two large boxes of firecrackers, and other donations helped to make them happy.

The Caledonians remembered the Home with a large supply of provisions, including three hams and many sandwiches, peanuts, etc., for all of which thanks are most sincerely proffered.

BALLOON ASCENSION FAILED.

Second Attempt of Aeronaut Ocker Was Unsuccessful.

Aeronaut W. W. Ocker, of Mansfield, O., who was engaged by the Caledonians to give an exhibition of going up in a balloon and shooting himself from a cannon in mid-air, to come down by means of a parachute, and who failed to perform the feat at the games on Monday, tried it again last evening, but was again unsuccessful.

When he was inflating the balloon with hot air one of the guy ropes snapped and the balloon in wobbling about went on so badly that it was found impossible to repair the break and proceed with the ascension.
